The future When I was ordained there were just under 150 priest in our diocese. In this parish there were three priests, as there were in most of the older central Brighton parishes, all of the newer churches had their own priest. By the year 2013 there will be a maximum of 25 priests under 65 for all the parishes of our diocese, that is to cover the whole of Surrey and East and West Sussex. Those responsible for managing our diocese will find a clever plan to manage the shortage of priests for the rest of us we need to pray for vocations, if we are serious in our prayer we should fast and do penance, not to show God our seriousness in prayer but to focus our prayer and show ourselves the seriousness of our prayer.

So, do support and pray for our diocese and for its bishop and existing priests, but pray too for vocations and that we the priests of the present may inspire young men to be priests of the future.

Use this as a frequent ejaculatory prayer, add it to your daily prayers or even the Holy Rosary and especially at Mass:

*"Lord, give your Church holy priests
And even holier bishops!"*
